

Feinstein Foundation Offers Another $1 Million Challenge To Help Fight Hunger

For the ninth straight year, Alan Shawn Feinstein will divide $1 million among non-profit agencies nationwide using it to help them raise funds during March and April, 2006.

Cash, checks, and food item donations received at Project S.H.A.R.E. from March 1st to April 30th will be reported to the Feinstein Foundation.

Food items will be valued at $1.00 per item.

The more of a donation an individual, group, business or congregation makes in response to the Feinstein Challenge - from March 1st to April 30th, 2005 – the more of the Feinstein $1 million will be added to their donation!

Local people donated 24,402 cans of food and $73,926 to Project S.H.A.R.E. during March and April 2005 for the match!

The Feinstein million dollars will be divided proportionately among all agencies complying with the above.

Feinstein's past $1 million challenges to fight hunger have raised $350 million for agencies nationwide. Join the most successful grass roots campaign of all times to fight hunger in America. For further information visit www.feinsteinfoundation.org or call us.

Empty Bowls Event!

Tuesday, March 27, 2006 at 6pm

Once again, Dickinson Art Students, under the direction of Brooke Wiley, will design bowls for this special event. When entering the dining hall, you will have the opportunity to choose a bowl you admire from several hundred. Each bowl is Unique! After selecting a bowl, you are invited to share in a simple meal, filling your new bowl with a tasty soup as well as bread and a beverage. Centerpieces of hand-made vases will be on display and for sale at every. The event is held in the Holland Union Building at Dickinson College. All proceeds will directly benefit Project S.H.A.R.E. The cost of your meal (including bowl) is $10. What an informal and enjoyable way to support the ministry of Project S.H.A.R.E.

Everyone is welcome! For tickets or more information please call the Dickinson Art Department at 243-5121 or S.H.A.R.E. at 249-7773.

Eighth Annual Day of SHARing Community Choir Concert!

to benefit Project S.H.A.R.E.

Sunday, February 27, 2005

4:00 p.m.

Otterbein U.M. Church

*This year, we are pleased to have Andy Hoke serve as our Director. He has chosen four wonderful selections to augment our standard
“He Ain’t Heavy, He’s My Brother,” by Bobby Scott.
Please join us for this wonderful afternoon of music.
A free-will offering will be taken.*

Choirs participating in the 2005 concert are:

Allison United Methodist

Brethren in Christ

St. John’s Episcopal

Second Presbyterian

St. Matthew’s UCC

The Carlisle Barracks Youth of the Chapel Choir

For more information, contact Project S.H.A.R.E. at 249-7773 or Kay Baldwin at 258-4184.